

Deaf man, blind man and mute man.

Blind man: I must find someone to help me.

(He turned around and ~~spoken~~ spoken to the person next to him)

Can you please help me to cross the road.

(The deaf man ^{didn't} understand what he ~~what~~ wanted so he asked someone else)

Deaf man: Hey, I'm sorry to disturb you but I'm deaf and this man next to me want something but I don't know what.

(Mute man started to do some signs with his hand to the deaf man)

Mute man: (In signs language) I'm mute person And I can't ask him what he want. Can you ask him so I can hear him what he want.

Deaf man: I'm sorry but I'm deaf and the person next to me is ~~the~~ muted. Can you repeat the question again.

Blind man understand what the man said and said

Blind man: I'm blind and I was asking for help from someone to cross the road.

The mute man understand and said to the deaf man that the blind man is blind and want to cross the road. The deaf and mute man helped the blind man cross the ~~road~~ road.
