The SDGs – Sustainable Development Goals – are influencing the transformation of the world around you. Get informed so that you can be an agent of change!

The United Nations has set 17 goals which must be reached by 2030. All nations members of the UN (193) have compromised to make efforts to reach them and make the world a more sustainable system.

Try to guess together: what could be these 17 goals?

Get some inspiration from their respective symbols!

Now it is time to check if you got them right!

What do you think?

Why does the United Nations (UN) stress on the importance that all nations pursue these goals together? And why is it also important that individuals, like for example yourself, your friends, and your neighbours also do what they can?
