

Malala Yousafzai, ملالہ یوسفزی

She is known for her activities for women's rights in Pakistan, and she belongs to a group of women worldwide who are fighting for equal rights and advancing their status in the society in which they live. Malala is a warrior who gave her life to eradicate injustice and suffering for women.

The Taliban banned women from attending school, and she expressed her opinion publicly. She was shot in the head by Taliban fighters after saying that girls have the right to participate in school.

In 2013 she was awarded prizes for promoting the field of human rights; in 2014, she was announced as the bride of the Nobel Peace Prize, the youngest ever to win the Nobel Prize.

Malala is a symbol of bravery, a breakthrough, and a role model for the younger generation of women.

Malala quotes:

- "Some people only ask others to do something. I believe that, why should I wait for someone else? Why don't I take a step and move forward?"
- "I truly believe the only way we can create global peace is through not only educating our minds, but our hearts and our souls."
- "Let us make our future now, and let us make our dreams tomorrow's reality."
- "So let us wage a global struggle against illiteracy, poverty, and terrorism, and let us pick up our books and pens. They are our most powerful weapons."
- "If we want to achieve our goal, then let us empower ourselves with the weapon of knowledge and let us shield ourselves with unity and togetherness."
- "If people were silent, nothing would change."
- "When the whole world is silent, even one voice becomes powerful."
- "We want schools and education for every child's bright future. We will continue our journey to our destination of peace and education for everyone."
